

Central Library

The central library is located in building C on the IPT Campus. It contains about 26 000 titles and a vast collection of journals and magazines. It also contains all necessary materials for every degree course such as newspapers, monographs, maps, audio-visual resources, etc., which may be borrowed or requested.

From local computers the students can access the bibliographical list by author, title or subject and locate books and journals on the respective shelves.

The Central Library also provides the b-on (Online Library) service, which allows electronic access to major editors of international scientific journals offering a wide range of scientific articles available online.
